

The Largest Conference Centre on the Island of Malta

The Mediterranean Conference Centre on the Island of Malta is a historical building situated within the capital city, Valletta. The Centre boasts a total of nine halls over an area of 7,000 square metres. The halls vary in size and are therefore suitable for a range of events.

Each meeting hall is equipped with its own independent sound, lighting and climate control. Conference facilities include permanent installations for simultaneous translation for up to six languages as well as audiovisual equipment. The Centre can accommodate over 2,200 delegates in all the conference halls.

No matter what the size of the event being organised - from a small presentation to a large conference, a product launch or an exhibition, a convention or even a theatrical performance - the Mediterranean Conference Centre can cater for all your requirements.

The Excelsior Grand Hotel Malta in Valletta is Malta's newest and brightest star.

We promise every guest the luxury, comfort and superior service standards that you would expect from a luxury 5-star.

Naturally, we extend that service philosophy to each and every corporate delegate.

Our purpose-built conference and banqueting facilities seat 1,000 delegates with 4,026 square metres of delegate space and fourteen separate venue formats to choose from.

For larger conferences the Excelsior, in association with the Mediterranean Conference Centre (MCC), holds a further 2,300 seated delegates and is spread across 10 halls of over 7,000 square metres with venues for every possible hospitality format.
