Regular trips to and from Malta and Gozo are available between April and October from both main islands.

Public Transport: Public transport is efficient and reasonably priced. The main bus terminus in Malta is in Valletta, just outside the City Gate. Malta buses are orange and show the route number on the front. Malta bus routes leave from and go to Valletta. In Gozo, the bus terminus is in Main Gate Street, Victoria. Buses are grey with a central red band and show the route number on the front. Gozo buses operate along circular routes, leaving from and returning to Victoria without scheduled stops at termini. A regular service runs to and from Mgarr, route 25, and is timed to coincide with the ferry timetable.

Taxis: The white taxi service has the privilege of picking up passengers from anywhere, except bus-stops. Taxi services from the Malta International Airport to all localities in Malta are based on a fixed tariff. [Useful Tip: Inquire and agree on a fare before you enter a taxi.]

Driving: In Malta, driving is on the left. There are speed limits of 80 km/h on the open road and 50 km/h in built- up areas. Comprehensive insurance is advisable. National or international driving licences are accepted. Useful Tip: Always lock your car when parking. Do not leave luggage and valuables visible inside parked vehicles.

Water Taxis in Grand Harbour: A & S Water Taxis provides cruises in and around the Grand Harbour, as well as crossings between Valletta and the historic towns of Senglea and Vittoriosa using the traditional Maltese boat known as 'dghajsa'.
Info: www.maltesewatertaxis.com

Swimming & Sunbathing: The Maltese coastal waters are generally clean and safe for swimming as there are no tides. Sea temperatures average around 22.8°C in summer.

Museums

In Malta, discovering 7000 years is easier than you think. The Islands themselves are really one big heritage park. There are open-air museums and indoor museums for every era from prehistory to the story of Malta in World War II. With the Knights of St John patrons of the arts for over 250 years, you'll find cultural masterpieces in museums, palaces and churches across the Islands.

The Islands' museums have something for everyone, whether you're browsing for leisure or wish to deepen a special interest. The magnificent Baroque architecture and religious treasures as well as evidence of the many wars and battles, offer the visitor a glimpse into the spectacular history of the Islands.

Food and Drink

Maltese cuisine is the result of a long relationship between the Islanders and the many invaders who occupied the Maltese Islands over the centuries. This marriage of tastes has given Malta an eclectic mix of Mediterranean cooking..

Traditional Maltese food is rustic and based on the seasons. Look out for Lampuki Pie (fish pie), Rabbit Stew, Bragioli (beef olives), Kapunata (Maltese version of ratatouille), and widow's soup, which includes small round Gbejniet (sheep or goat's cheese). On most food shop counters, you'll see Bigilla, a thick pate of broad beans with garlic. The snacks that must be tried are 'hobz biżżejt' (round of bread dipped in olive oil, rubbed with ripe tomatoes and filled with a mix of tuna, onion, garlic, tomatoes and capers) and pastizzi (flaky pastry parcel filled with ricotta or mushy peas).

Enjoying the Nightlife

Typical of the Mediterranean lifestyle, the Islanders' approach to life is to enjoy and celebrate it as much as possible. Nightlife on the Islands is always bustling; there are scores of clubs to visit, excellent wine bars and first-rate restaurants to try.

Very unique to the Islands are the lively summer village parish festas. Saints, fireworks, food and fun are all part of this cultural phenomenon.

Theatre is a lively and well-represented part of the local cultural scene. The Baroque 18th century Manoel Theatre makes a wonderful venue for the performing arts.

There is a variety of other sources of nightlife entertainment – try your luck at the casinos, go see a film (blockbuster movies, art house films, re-releases and non-English language films) or do as the Maltese and dine al fresco at one of the romantic palazzos or bustling harbour restaurants.
